1. Reassess goals and plan of care.
2. Incorporate ambulation over obstacles on the treadmill during Biodex Gait Trainer ambulation.
3. Incorporate community ambulation exercises (changes of direction, steps, other uneven surfaces, distractors, etc.) using traditional gait training activities.

NOTE: Use Biodex Unweighing System during traditional gait training as needed for safety, then progressively decrease patient dependence until goals are achieved.