Cardiology Products Division of Biodex Announces Expansion

Denise Livesay joins Biodex Medical Systems, Inc. as Cardiology Product Sales Manager, the company announced. Denise is a seasoned veteran of the industry working in many capacities in the medical devices field. Most recently she held product sales positions generating tremendous growth and earning her an industry award. Since joining in March, Livesay is part of the expansion plans Biodex has initiated to increase sales in medical imaging; concentrating on the Sound Pro and Echo Pro Echocardiography Tables. Her responsibilities at Biodex include management of product sales, clinical/technical and applications support to medical imaging customers.
